

BETH OAKES

Executive Vice President

DHR International

Beth Oakes brings extensive experience in personal branding, career management and organizational design in Canada and the US to her role as Executive Vice President, DHR International in Toronto.

Prior to joining DHR, Ms. Oakes was Managing Director at Miller Dallas in Toronto. There, she provided career marketing strategies to executives in all functional areas across a broad range of industry sectors including financial services, telecommunications, technology, and health care. She also advised executives interested in obtaining board appointments and those starting their own businesses.

A Certified Management Consultant, Ms. Oakes is a member of the Canadian Association of Management Consultants. She is also a member of Institute of Corporate Directors, the Women's Executive Network and the US Society for Human Resource Management, having earned lifetime certification. Ms. Oakes is also the Vice Chair on the Youth Employment Services (YES) board and is a frequent guest speaker.

She holds a degree in Psychology from the University of Western Ontario.